

NorQuip
SERVICE

Hiring and selling is easy. Servicing is where we've earned our good name.

Whether you need servicing for your own portable toilets, equipment hired through NorQuip, or amenities hired through another company - we offer reliable, responsible waste management.

We also offer a range of liquid waste removal services for septic tanks, grease traps, grey water tanks and portable building holding tanks. Furthermore, our vacuum excavation services also known as hydrovac services are ideal for non-destructive digging. Our goal with NorQuip's service range is to make your job as project manager, business owner or event coordinator as convenient as we can. That's why we are the contract service provider of choice for other equipment providers.

NorQuip holds an environmental permit from the Department of Environment and Science and is licenced to remove and transport regulated waste. We can provide waste tracking documentation from pick up to disposal.

Liquid waste management is available as a sole service, or as part of a package with hire equipment. We offer a 24-7 emergency response.

Liquid Waste Removal

Septic Tanks, Grey Water & Grease Traps

Our fleet of purpose built vacuum trucks allow us to choose the right vehicle to get the job done. We provide liquid waste services including waste removal from large waste holding tanks, domestic and commercial septic tanks, grey water, grease traps and oils. We hold an environmental permit with the Department of Environment and Science and are licenced to remove and transport regulated waste.

Construction Site Toilet Servicing

Service packages are offered to ensure clean and hygienic toilets on your construction sites. With service packages, regular services are scheduled at intervals that best suit your needs and your toilets are automatically added into our day's service runs. With time saved and no additional charges for final pump-out and cleans at the end of hires, service packages have an increased value for money. Available for twice weekly, weekly, fortnightly and monthly or servicing on demand.
